FIRST METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH

BLUFFTON, INDIANA

ISSUED APRIL 1ST, 1917

Pastor for the Year 1917-1918
REV. WILLIAM T. ARNOLD

Containing Roll of Members and Probationers, Contributors for the Year Ending March 31, 1917; Officiary, Committees and Other Items of Interest.

HISTORY OF THE CHURCH.

The first sermon was preached in Bluffton about the middle of November, 1838, under the oak tree on the banks of the Wabash River at the north end of Johnson street.

The preacher was Rev. George W. Bowers, a young man of twenty-five, who the year before had been commissioned by some bishop to go and preach in the wilds of Indiana.

After listening to his message the people banded themselves together, forming a society which was the beginning of the First Methodist Episcopal Church of Bluffton.

It was a very small beginning, but it grew into the large congregation of today. For the first few years the services were held in the homes of the people.

In 1847 the congregation built their first church edifice. It was a little frame building. This was the home of our people until October 13, 1872, when the present structure was built and dedicated by Bishop Thomas Bowman. Years after, the present building was remodeled and made more commodious.

The church has grown rapidly until today it is one of the leading churches in our conference. It now has a membership of 958. The outlook for a greater church is very promising.
